FICTIONAL CASE • DEMONSTRATION ONLY

Complaint and statement of facts

CaseCrypt demo bundle | Case reference: DEMO/2023/017

Case particulars

Petitioner: Asha Mehta

Respondent: Rohan Shah

Counsel: Priya Rao

Forum: Fictional District Court, Demo City

Statement of facts

On 12 June 2023, Asha Mehta transferred INR 85,000 to Rohan Shah for the supply of five office laptops.

On 19.06.2023, the alleged non-delivery incident occurred at the agreed delivery address in Demo City.

On 22/06/2023, Asha Mehta filed a written complaint with the Demo City Police Station.

Claim and references

The petitioner alleges that the respondent accepted payment but did not deliver the laptops or refund INR 85,000.

The complaint cites Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 154 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

These references are fictional pleadings for extraction testing, not findings of an offence.

Documents referred to Exhibit A: Mock payment receipt for INR 85,000.

Exhibit B: Mock purchase correspondence concerning five office laptops.